RESUME

My journey so far

Graduate student in Digital Education at Xi'an Jiaotong–Liverpool University, building on a background in exhibition management, event planning, and hands-on student leadership.

Summary

Graduate student majoring in Digital Education at Xi'an Jiaotong–Liverpool University. Brings a strong undergraduate background in Exhibition Economy and Management, with hands-on experience in event planning, organization, and execution — from reviewing Youth League Day materials and volunteer teaching, to photography, copywriting, and HR support. Familiar with the full process of pre-event promotion and recruitment, with a track record of provincial and university awards. Curious, organized, and motivated to keep learning and contributing.
